About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn't acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a "turn-type."

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Chaldean system, which is used in this report, the number assignments are based mainly on the sound of the letter. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 6.

Your Life Path of 6 means that your destiny is to serve and to be responsible for the welfare of others. Be it the home, the family or a work situation, your task is to lead the group and make it unified and productive. You'll be involved with nurturing weaker persons, and you must learn to put the welfare of the group before your own interests. Aspire to be the benign parent figure, a source of guidance and strength. Marriage is ideal for you.

Numerology based on your name: AGATHA CHRISTIE

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 5.

With 5 as a Motivation number, you desire personal freedom and the chance to do new things. Bored with routines and situations that are stagnant, you especially welcome travel because of the stimulating changes of scenery and situations that it brings. You plunge headlong into life, and prefer your experience to be on the physical rather than the intellectual plane. Adventurous, sensual, and hungry for stimulus, you may find yourself strongly attracted to sex, food, alcohol or drugs.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is A.

“A” feels courageous and daring, and gives you the soul of a warrior. Often you do not look before you leap, impulsively getting yourself into more hot water than you'd like. But you have the dash and flair to extricate yourself no matter what. You like to be on the front line, and are not afraid to go out on a limb for your beliefs. Preferring to be the one in control, you do not take well to authority. You want to call the shots and go it alone, because you are often too impatient to wait for others.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 3.

Having the Impression number 3, you dream of being a very popular person: magnetically attractive, and even a sex symbol. You are the actor on center stage, the movie star, the life of the party, charming everyone with your wit. Since you are conscious of the image you project, only the latest and best in fashion will do. You may dream of the jet-set life or another glamorous lifestyle in which you are the star.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 8.

The Expression number 8 makes you the business leader, the organizer and the practical achiever. You get what you want through resolve and stamina. You have an air of authority that instills confidence, and your innate business sense attracts success. You're quick to seize opportunity and enlist others to help you. Power comes easily to you, and it is sometimes hard for you to relinquish your natural tendency to dominate.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 8 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: bank director, manufacturer, military officer, head of a public institution, publishing executive, corporation head, real estate developer, developer of chain stores or franchises, contractor, financier, judge, buyer, office manager, coach.

On Stage: public official, orchestra leader, promoter.

Service: banker, cashier, broker, compiler, engineer, shipper, corporation or tax lawyer, purchasing agent, insurance agent, business consultant, investment advisor, office worker at a credit or loan company or stock brokerage.

Just You: statistician, critic, business analyst.

Best Bet: any job dealing with money, big business or power.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 5.

A Power number of 5 signifies a life of freedom, variety and change. Fives attract situations that demand versatility and adaptability. Always open to new experiences, they seek out the curious and the unusual, and are constantly on the lookout for new fields to explore and new roads to travel. In some way embodying the archetype of the Trickster, they are unconventional, unpredictable, full of surprises, and excel at doing the unexpected. Not ones to tarry long, they tend toward impulsivity and depart in a flash if their interest is diverted elsewhere. Adventurous, enterprising and resourceful, they continually enliven their environment with energy and enthusiasm.

Fives are sociable and get on well with all kinds of people. Talking is one of their favorite activities. People interest them immensely, and they will spend hours chatting with strangers and friends alike.

As clever as they are with words, fives are also clever with their hands. They make excellent craftsmen, are known for their versatility, and are often amazingly dexterous, dazzling others with their creative handiwork.

Tarot Key 5: The Hierophant

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Hierophant. Called the Pope in some decks, he wears a triple crown, which in metaphysical language represents the integration of body, mind, and spirit. This integration creates a deep faith in life, and an energetic desire to experience life to its fullest. The Hierophant is versatile, a generalist who can see many facets of life. This can lead to brilliant ideas and new interpretations. People on this vibration deal with people well, and, like the Pope, may have a sizable flock.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 4 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 4, you may have to fight a tendency toward laziness and a lack of focus and concentration. You'll strengthen your character when you cultivate discipline and make an effort to work steadily for what you want.

The number 5 is missing in your name.

With a 5 Karma number, you may fear change in your own life and may thus tend to lack compassion for others who are caught up in devastating changes. A life of wide experience will give you better understanding. As you are presented with life's challenges, you will find your own power to weather change. Then you will no longer fear it, and you will be able to help others face change in their own lives. This Karma number also reminds you to work on controlling your appetites.

The number 7 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 7, it's possible that you have many fears and anxieties. You will find that the path out of your worry is to develop your intellect and spirituality.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 31. Its number is 9.

This is a high vibration for a young person to bear. This is because 9 is not conducive to a sense of security, and because selflessness may be expected of you at a time in your development when it is natural to be selfish. There may be change and instability for you to cope with, and the air may be charged with emotional tensions that you are too young to understand. Your own needs as a child may be neglected, so that you do not know what to do with your own intense feelings. Some form of artistic expression can be a great help in sorting these feelings out, and a good education can provide some structure and resources to deal with life. Toward the end of this cycle you will most likely have gained enough maturity to feel more comfortable with the intense energies of a 9.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 31 and lasts until age 58. Its number is 6.

More than most people, you need a middle life of settling down, building your nest and putting down roots. Your responsibilities to others are paramount during this time. Others will depend on you, so you must be strong and able to give advice and guidance. Your family life should now be in order if you are to accomplish your goals during this period. This is a perfect time for enjoying married life.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 58 and lasts until death. Its number is 9.

In later years you can expect many changes in your life situation, and much will be discarded. It's a high-powered last cycle, so learn to pace yourself. Helping others, and cultivating compassion and tolerance, are the best paths to achieving your own happiness. This is a good time to retire, study and learn. You can also further your creative expression by associating with sensitive and artistic friends.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.
Its number is 6.

This youthful Turning Point may call you to take on heavy domestic responsibilities at an early age, such that you feel denied a carefree childhood. If you shoulder these responsibilities with good grace, your reward may be love, security, protection, loyalty and sympathy, both given and received. This Turning Point may also take the form of an early marriage that comes when you are still really too young to settle down.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.
Its number is 6.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to take on domestic responsibilities with grace. You must avoid getting hung up on delivering the material necessities to your near and dear, and remember that it is your love and acceptance of who they really are that is the most important give you can give.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.
Its number is 3.

This 3 vibration in the prime of your life demands that you now actualize your creative powers. Your imagination is fertile, and this is a great time to express yourself, especially in words. This is also a chance for networking and making yourself known, and it can be a time when you have the choice of wearing prosperity badly or well.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.
Its number is 9.

In the last period of your life, a 9 vibration calls you to be selfless, impersonal and universal in your outlook. If you cling to anything in a period when change, endings and loss are real possibilities, you will only create misery for yourself and you will fail to garner the wisdom that is offered to you now. Whatever life brings, you must study it for the lessons that it offers. When you learn the lesson, suffering is no longer necessary. If you maintain your universal outlook, money and success are a real possibility, but your greatest rewards are in learning compassion and seeing the true beauty that is all around you.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 3.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 3, you will feel impeded until you learn to overcome the barriers to the free expression of your natural talents. You may need to overcome shyness and learn to express yourself clearly. Once you learn to relax with people, you may exhibit an unusual facility for expressing yourself in conversation and lending life and enjoyment to social situations. You should seize every opportunity to realize your creative potential, taking lessons when you can and letting enjoyment of what you are doing break down any barriers to your spontaneity.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 3.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 3, your task is to channel your energies so that you can truly express yourself. You may need to learn not to scatter your attention and squander your time and energy. You may need either to avoid being a chatterbox, or to come out of your shell and not be daunted by criticism. When you find your stride, life will feel like a dance, and your self-expression will be natural and unimpeded.

Your Major Challenge number is 0.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. A zero Challenge number presents no particular challenge, and so it gives you a choice of what to work on. You may be tempted to coast through life, but if you choose instead to work on any problems in your character, you can become truly great. You are evolved enough to be conscious of whatever shortcomings you have, and to deal with them one at a time. Becoming the kind of person you know you could be is the most difficult of challenges, but you are eminently capable of meeting it.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
